Hello Katherine

Just following on from our chat earlier today I would like to confirm the services Australia do not collect demographic details on people who register as potential donors.

Sadly this means we are unable to provide any additional information regarding the ethnicity of those who are on the register.

All we may be able to provide is a summary of the % of registration by postcode. Please let me know if this is helpful and I can see if we can provide this to you.

Kind regards,

Tony Holland
