Key organisations at youth justice centres hearing

The parliamentary inquiry into youth justice centres in Victoria will hold its next public hearing on Wednesday 14 June.

The Legal and Social Issues Committee will hold the public hearing from 10:00 am to 5:00 pm in the Legislative Council Committee Room at Parliament House.

Among those presenting at the hearing will be the Department of Health and Human Services, as well as the Children's Court of Victoria.

The Committee will also hear from former Victoria Police Chief Commissioner Neil Comrie.

The inquiry is examining issues arising at the Parkville and Malmsbury Youth Justice Centres. The Committee will investigate incident reporting; the security and safety of staff and young offenders; management culture and practices; as well as the oversight role of the Department of Health and Human Services.

The schedule for the public hearing and more details on the inquiry are available from the Committee's website.
