REPORT

The Select Committee of the Legislative Council on Standing Orders, appointed pursuant to the Resolution of the Council on 27 March 2003, has the honour to report as follows:

1. On 24 May 2005 the Legislative Council agreed to the following Resolution:

   That —
   (1) the Standing Orders Committee be required to undertake a review of the Standing Orders and make recommendations for new and/or amended Standing Orders.
   (2) the Committee present its report on the review to the Council no later than the first sitting day in 2006.
   (3) the Committee have power to confer with the Standing Orders Committee of the Legislative Assembly regarding a review of the Joint Standing Orders and to report jointly thereon to the House.

2. On 23 November 2005 the Council further resolved to amend that Resolution to require the Committee to present an interim report on the review no later than 7 February 2006 and a final report no later than 15 June 2006. An interim report recommending the adoption of a trial Sessional Order on the appointment of a Legislation Committee was tabled on 24 November 2005. A report recommending the adoption of new Joint Standing Orders for the Parliament of Victoria was also tabled on 20 July 2006.

3. The Legislative Council subsequently resolved to extend the reporting date for the final report to 24 August 2006.

4. The Committee held its first meeting on the review on 1 August 2005 and during the inquiry met on 20 occasions.

5. The Committee has now completed the review and a proposed draft set of new Standing Orders for consideration by the Legislative Council is at Appendix A. The new draft omits 25 existing Standing Orders and substantially revises many others. It incorporates the current Sessional Orders and the Rules of Practice and updates the current Standing Orders in clearer, more concise language where appropriate. The draft also includes new Standing Orders considered necessary to further improve the conduct of business of the House or to give effect to current practice not enshrined in the Standing Orders. Two completely new chapters are also included.

6. A comparative table showing either where the current Standing Orders have been included in the proposed new draft or whether they have been omitted from the new set appears at Appendix B. An appropriate explanation is also included in the table if the current Standing Order has been substantially amended.

RECOMMENDATION

7. The Committee therefore recommends that the Legislative Council take steps to adopt the new Standing Orders before the conclusion of the 55th Parliament and further recommends that they take effect from the first day of sittings in 2007.

President's Suite,
23 August 2006

PRESIDENT, DEPUTY PRESIDENT AND ACTING PRESIDENTS

2.01 Election of President

2.02 Conduct of the election

(1) The Clerk will conduct the election of the President.

(2) The Clerk will ask whether there are any nominations.

(3) A Member, addressing the Clerk, will nominate a Member who is present to be President. The nomination must be seconded. The Member nominated will indicate whether the nomination is accepted.

(4) The Clerk must allow adequate time for nominations to be made and seconded.

(5) If only one Member is nominated and seconded as President, the nominee will then be taken out of his or her place by the proposer and seconder and conducted by them to the Chair.

(3) If there are only two candidates, the candidate with the greater number of votes will be declared elected, taken out of their place by the proposer and seconder and conducted by them to the Chair.

(4) If there are more than two candidates, and no candidate outpolls all the others, the candidate with the smallest number of votes will be eliminated and a further open vote will be held.

2.05 Suspension of the sitting

If the Council is unable to resolve any question relating to the election of the President, the Clerk, after consultation with the party leaders, may suspend the sitting for up to one hour, for that or any other reason that he or she thinks appropriate.

(3) In the event that the Council is again unable to resolve any question relating to the election of the President no further suspension will be permitted.

2.07 Procedure where no candidate has a majority

If the vote is tied between the two final candidates, the Clerk will call for a second open vote between them and, if the result is the same, the candidate nominated by the Government will be declared elected as President and, notwithstanding the provisions of Standing Order 2.09, the candidate nominated by the Opposition will be declared elected Deputy President.

2.08 President takes the Chair

(4) The Deputy President will continue to act in that position until the next election of Members of the Council. The Deputy President will take the Chair whenever requested to do so by the President during a sitting of the Council, without any formal communication to the Council.

2.10 Presentation of President to Governor

2.11 Governor’s reply to be reported

The President will report to the Council any reply that may be made by the Governor.

2.12 Acting Presidents

The President may from time to time during the Session make changes to the panel.

       question will be put forthwith and decided without amendment or debate.

   (3) During Committee of the whole when the Chair is satisfied that the debate on a clause or amendment is repetitious or frivolous, the Chair may accept a motion without notice from a Minister “That the question be now put”.
(4) The question on such motion will be put forthwith and decided without amendment or debate.

EXTRACTS FROM THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE COMMITTEE

The following Extracts from the Minutes of the Proceedings of the Committee show divisions which took place during the consideration of the draft report.

WEDNESDAY, 23 AUGUST 2006

PARAGRAPH 5

5. The Committee has now completed the review and a proposed draft set of new Standing Orders for consideration by the Legislative Council is at Appendix A. The new draft omits 25 existing Standing Orders and substantially revises many others. It incorporates the current Sessional Orders and the Rules of Practice and updates the current Standing Orders in clearer, more concise language where appropriate. The draft also includes new Standing Orders considered necessary to further improve the conduct of business of the House or to give effect to current practice not enshrined in the Standing Orders. Two completely new chapters are also included.

Amendment proposed by the Honourable Philip Davis – That the expression “with the exception of those relating to time limits and the Government Business Program” be inserted after “incorporates the current Sessional Orders”.

Question – That the expression proposed to be inserted be so inserted – put.

Committee divided – The President in the Chair.

Mr. John Lenders
Ms. Glenyys Romanes
Mr. Matt Viney

NOES, 3

The Hon. Barry Bishop
The Hon. Philip Davis
The Hon. Bill Forwood

The votes being equal, the Chair gave her casting vote with the Noes – Amendment negatived.

PARAGRAPH 7

7. The Committee therefore recommends that the Legislative Council take steps to adopt the new Standing Orders before the conclusion of the 55th Parliament and further recommends that they take effect from the first day of sittings in 2007.

Amendment proposed by the Honourable Philip Davis – That the following expression be inserted at the end of the paragraph:

95
However, no valid argument has been advanced in favour of the imposition of time limits on debates (proposed Standing Order 5.04) and for a Government Business Program (proposed Chapter 11). These provisions should therefore be omitted from the draft set of Standing Orders recommended for consideration by the Council.

Question – That the expression proposed to be inserted be so inserted – put.

Committee divided – The President in the Chair.
