

Leke's father, [REDACTED], died in 1977, after 15 years of heart problems. Leke was quite troubled. On the advice of my brother in law, [REDACTED], I sent Leke to Sakeleam College Sumbury in 1979 and part of 1980. The school was supposed to help troubled boys. He ran away twice and I knew he was unhappy, although he said nothing, so I took him away. Unbeknown to me, he started taking uppers and downers. By 18, he was on heroin. If you are an addict, you are a thief. For the next 12 years, he was in and out of gaol. He got married & had 3 children. When the youngest was 2, his wife dumped them all on D.H.S. Fortunately a good family took them in and raised them to adults. The last time Leke was in gaol, he broke down and told a Councillor (a nun) what had happened to him at Sumbury, multiple rapes. She started to investigate what Leke had said and within 2 days, [REDACTED] was gone to Rome. The matter went to "Towards Healing" and Leke's case was deemed to have merit. On the basis of signing a non-disclosure agreement, Leke was awarded $35,000. When the money ran out, so did his wife depart.

Leke was in and out of St Vincent's Hospital with Liver problems. The hospital got a Social Worker from Banyule to counsel Leke, which he did very well. He was now 37.

This Social Worker found a flat for Leke at [REDACTED]. I think the units were government owned for people with disabilities. Leke lived there for 2 years. During this time, he went to Diamond Creek Police Station Sexual Assault Unit, and told them what had happened to him at Sumbury. This took 2/3 visits as it was so distressing. The police should have a record of this.

Leke was becoming quite ill with Liver failure. The Social worker got Leke into [REDACTED], where he spent approx 6 months dying on Aug. 25th 2005. I discovered that when Leke was at Sumbury, 5 out of the 8 priests were paedophiles. 3 were eventually gaol'd, 1 went to the islands and has died, and [REDACTED] went to Rome. To this day [REDACTED] lives in Rome and refuses requests from the head of the Selections to come back to Australia & answer questions
