

Media release

Legislative Council Environment and Planning Committee

Hearing today on oil and gas infrastructure decommissioning

The Legislative Council Environment and Planning Committee will today hold a public hearing on its inquiry into decommissioning oil and gas infrastructure.

The 10 December hearing will be broadcast live from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm on the Committee's website.

The Committee will hear from a range of witnesses, including representatives of industry, scientific and environmental organisations.

It received 162 submissions to the inquiry.

Issued: 10 December 2025