Having watched both parents die a long and unnecessary death, I sincerely urge you to seek to change the present outdated and INHUMANE laws. If some religious group ordered us to follow their religion because it was the only true religion I imagine there would be a large hue and cry. Yet, that is what is being done daily and people are suffering cruel and unusual punishment through no fault of their own. If the lawmakers had to stand by and helplessly watch their nearest and dearest treated in this manner perhaps we would see a more rapid change. If we do not have control over our own lives, we have learned nothing. No one has the right to dictate our choice when it only affects ourselves.

Sincerely
Judith A. Tobin
