

Eileen Lademan

Voluntary Euthanasia is an act of caring,...At the age of 81 years I have sat with too many of my friends for days while they die in awful ways,looking at me with pleading eyes to do some thing to help them, would be so wonderful to see them off in peace full harmony, with their family ,because family do not stay and watch them depart this world, Eileen Lademan