Life is precious. We are not happy if a life is taken by another (murder); we are not happy if a person commits suicide (a waste of a life's contribution to society); we deplore loss of life through road trauma, and when there is an earthquake or tsunami, we honour those who rescue people saving them from death.

Now some want to assist people to die on the basis that that is their choice!!

Humans need to understand that they are not at the "top of the food chain". The author of life, the Creator God, is the one to whose authority we must submit.

He created life, values life, and offers comfort, encouragement and meaning to those who ask Him for it. Faith in God is about trusting Him to care for us through all the vicissitudes of life.

Whenever humans get control of something inevitably they stuff it up - we have watched the FIFA debacle, and we all know of waste in government. This power if granted, to take life, will also be mismanaged, leading the elderly to be fearful. NO EUTHANASIA!!
