

From: [REDACTED]
To: LSIC
Subject: Submissions
Date: Sunday, 26 July 2015 10:12:03 AM

I am a general practitioner in inner Melbourne and have practiced as a solo GP for 32 years. In the main when it is feasible patients I have looked after to the end of their life have died peacefully at home.

We have excellent services that could be further improved.

As with any legislation there is always a tendency by some to push the boundaries.

I have decided to write to you to bring to your attention one such area that may help the deliberations of the inquiry.

<http://www.newyorker.com/magazine/2015/06/22/the-death-treatment#>

Kind regards
Dr Raymond Martyres

[REDACTED]