

[REDACTED]

From: LSIC
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: RE: VE

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, 27 July 2015 5:07 PM
To: LSIC
Subject: VE

Please consider the terminally ill. Many situations require more than palliative care can give,our family watched my dad die a terrible death from lung cancer in the 1970s. Many times he begged for an easier way out than the treatment by the system. Surely decent people can help those crying out for a peaceful death without the religions and right to life minority insisting that they cop it the hard way.

Regards Bob Meharg.