I watched my Father die from bone cancer for 18 months before finally passing away in 2003. The last few months of this life were very painful and undignified.

I have seen more suffer during the last stages of there sickness and I think why why are we doing this to them, why can't we give them the option before they get to that stage to say enough I wish to go now.

I wish to have the right to end my life if I am in a similar situation. Please allow me that right.

Regards,

Peter Wilson
