Subject: End of life choices

To the Victorian Parliamentary Committee into End Of Life Choices.

LET ME DIE WELL

When the end is finally nigh
And it is clear I'm going to die,
When only suffering is my due
And all my options Oh, so few,
Give to me my rightful power
To choose the means and choose the hour.

To block my personal wishes then,
With narrow rules of callous men,
Whose bigotry does clearly show,
Is cruelty as we do know.
Give back to me my life to loose,
The kindest end that I may choose.
