Greetings -

I believe my life is my property more than anyone else's and so I should have more control over it than anyone else.

This is my control over my life - I do not seek to control anyone else's life and similarly I reject the right of anyone else, political or religious or other, to control mine.

The practical consequence is, I believe, that we should all have the means to access legal, safe, peaceful end-of-life options.

If I prefer to end my life rather than impose my probably-blind, unproductive, dependent aged self on my family and the wider community, then I believe I should have this option.

My death is inevitable. Its type and timing should be subject to my wishes.

Please consider.
