

From:
To: LSIC
Subject: voluntary assisted dying
Date: Sunday, 26 July 2015 12:10:10 PM

Australia's elderly life citizens need to know that the end of life can be easy, painless and dignified. At present end of life choices are severely restricted by an ideological minority who are unable and unwilling to face the problems of those at the end of their lives. We expect our elected representatives to respect overwhelming public opinion in their electorates that voluntary assisted dying is a right.

Max Blanch