15-Apr-26	30-Apr-26	International airfares - Melbourne/France/Melbourne. Having obtained the location of every grave on the Western Front of men from my local shire, the visit to France and Belgium will result in a visit to every grave of a fallen soldier from my own area as the Member for Gippsland East. It will be undertaken with author and historian Scott Bennett, who is also originally from East Gippsland and who acts as a guide and has organised meetings and discussions with experts in many of the local locations. There are over 250 East Gippslanders who made the ultimate sacrifice in WWI on the Western Front and they are spread over around 100 cemeteries across France and Belgium. The days will be long to locate all of these, but it can be achieved. Many who remain missing are remembered at Menin Gate and they will also be recognised with a visit. From a Shadow Minister perspective, the trip will also incorporate visits to the many key battle sites on the Western Front, and attendance at the ANZAC Day ceremony at Villers Bretonneux.	$1,932.63
