21-Apr-25	02-May-25	Representing my constituents on electorate business to take part in a cross-party delegation of MPs participating in the March of the Living Poland, including visits to World War 2 concentration camps - sites that hold profound historical significance for Victoria, given that Australian and particularly Melbourne became home to many Holocaust survivors. The Israel leg of the trip will include a visit to the graves of Australian soldiers at the Jerusalem War Cemetery (CWGC) as well as a meeting with the Israel Foreign Affairs Minister to discuss gender-based violence. The delegation will also visit Yad Vashem (the World Holocaust Remembrance Centre) and attend government meetings to address the rising issue of antisemitism in Victoria. As Shadow Minister for Agriculture, I will also take part in discussions on agricultural innovation and advancement of agri-tech in Israel.	$4,551.53
