Ms VALLENCE: Okay. Minister, you mentioned earlier in an answer $80 million from consolidated revenue for the accommodation. Has that been spent so far or is that the total budget?

Mr PAKULA: Again, I cannot speak to how much has been spent to date, but what I—

Ms VALLENCE: Can you take that notice?

Mr PAKULA: Indeed.

Answer:

The Department of Jobs, Precincts and Regions ceased to be involved in the COVID19 emergency accommodation programs after 30 June 2020. These programs now fall within the portfolio responsibility of the Attorney-General and Minister for the Coordination of Justice and Community Safety: COVID-19.

Questions about these programs should be directed to the Attorney-General and Minister for the Coordination of Justice and Community Safety: COVID-19.
