

PARLIAMENT OF VICTORIA
Legal and Social Issues Standing Committee – Legislative Council

MEDIA RELEASE

Victoria Police at hearing on legislated spent convictions scheme

The first public hearing on the inquiry into a legislated spent convictions scheme will now also take evidence from Victoria Police in addition to the Law Institute of Victoria.

The public hearing will be held on Wednesday 29 May from 7:30 pm in the Legislative Council Committee Room at Parliament House.

Updated hearing details and more information on the inquiry are available from the Legal and Social Issues Committee's website.

Issued: 28 May 2019