Interim report tabled on youth justice centres

The Victorian Parliament's Legal and Social Issues Committee has today tabled an interim report on its inquiry into youth justice centres.

The interim report advises Parliament that the Committee has referred a matter to the Victorian Ombudsman based on evidence presented during the inquiry.

The matter relates to allegations of potential misconduct concerning the Department of Education and Training.

The former executive principal of Parkville College raised the allegations, which relate to the Supreme Court challenge over housing of young offenders in the Grevillea Unit at Barwon Prison.
