Recent and Current Prosecutions

Two councils have initiated four prosecutions in 2023-24. These prosecutions have been in response to breaches of the Tobacco Act in retail settings. One of the prosecutions has been withdrawn due to evidence being tabled in court that was not provided during interviews. Another has been adjourned to later this year.

The costs to council have involved significant officer time in administration and preparation. Engagement of legal counsel and costs are also required. Where illicit tobacco is involved in the breach, secure storage and disposal costs are also incurred.
