STANDING ORDER

OF THE

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

The Clerk of the Parliaments on the first day of the next Restoration of lapsed Bill. ensuing Session of Parliament shall lay on the Table of the Council a copy of a Bill intituled "An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Conservation and Supply of Water, to declare the Law relating to certain Rights in Natural Waters, the property in the beds and banks containing the same, and for other purposes," and such Bill shall bear upon the face of it a certificate from the Clerk that it is identical with the Bill that was received from the Legislative Assembly and read a first time by the Council on the sixteenth day of November One thousand nine hundred and four, but was not finally disposed of when Parliament was prorogued; then a motion may be made that such Bill be advanced to the stage it had reached in the Council in the former Session. Such motion shall be determined without debate and if carried thereupon the said Bill shall be deemed to have been read a first time, and an Order of the Day shall be made for the second reading thereof on such day as the Council may determine.

Adopted by the Legislative Council as a Standing Order the twenty-third day of November One thousand nine hundred and four.
