

PARLIAMENT OF VICTORIA
Law Reform, Road and Community Safety Committee

MEDIA RELEASE

---

Hearings begin on P-plate licence age

Public hearings commence on Wednesday 15 June for the parliamentary inquiry that is investigating whether the P-plate licence age in Victoria should be lowered to 17.

VicRoads and the RACV will present their views to the Victorian Parliament's Law Reform, Road and Community Safety Committee at the first hearing.

The public hearing will be from 1:00 pm to 3:15 pm in Meeting Room G.2, 55 St Andrews Place, East Melbourne.

For more details on the hearing and the inquiry, visit the Committee's website.

Issued: 14 June 2016