Former Liberal Premier, the Honourable Jeff Kennett, introduced the policy to install statues of former Victorian Premiers who serve 3,000 days or more in office, in recognition of their long service to Victoria.

The only criterion to commission a statue of a former Premier, as established by the former Premier, is 3,000 days served in office. There are four existing statues commemorating former Premiers Rupert Hamer, Albert Dunstan, Henry Bolte and John Caine Jr.

Having served as Premier of Victoria from 4 December 2014 to 23 December 2023, the Honourable Daniel Andrews remains eligible for a statue to be installed in Treasury Place.
