Senior Victorians: board member and volunteer training

421. MR DALLA-RIVA — To ask the Minister for Community Services:

- (1) What training does the Government provide board members of rural health services, which include hospitals, residential aged care services, Bush Nursing Hospitals and Multi-Purpose Services.
- (2) What training does the Government provide for volunteer committees of aged care facilities and community service providers.
- (3) How many individuals from each category were trained in 2006-07.

ANSWER:

I am informed that:

- (1) The Government commenced a three-year statewide board member development program in early June 2007 - the Victorian Health Boards Governance Program - for all rural and regional public sector health service board members covering public hospitals (including hospitals providing residential aged care services), bush nursing hospitals and centres, multi-purpose services and stand-alone community health centres. The program also takes in metropolitan health services and community health centres.
- (2) No specific training is provided to volunteer committees of aged care facilities and community service providers through the Aged Care Branch.

Attorney-General: national classification code and guidelines

431. MS PENNICUIK — To ask the Minister for Planning (for the Attorney-General): In relation to the review into the Federal Government's proposed amendments to the national Classification Code and Classification guidelines, which introduce further censorship for material seen to promote terrorist acts:

- (2) What is the danger to the community the Victorian Government is addressing.
- (3) How did the State Government gauge this community concern/anger which supposedly prompted the review.
- (4) Will the State Government support the Federal Government's proposed amendments, as outlined in the Review paper.
- (5) What steps is the Victorian Government planning to take given that the proposed amendments will restrict the freedom of political communication, which is explicitly protected by Victoria's Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities.

ANSWER:

I am advised that:

- (1) It is important to examine our laws to ensure we have appropriate measures to address materials that advocate terrorism whilst at the same time striking the right balance in respect of freedom of speech.
- (2) As above.
- (3) A discussion paper on the issue was released for the purposes of public consultation.
- (4) Federal legislation, the Commonwealth (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Amendment (Terrorist Material) Bill 2007 was introduced into Federal Parliament which amended the Commonwealth Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Act 1995 and introduced a specific provision to capture material that ‘advocates the doing of a terrorist act’.
- (5) The States and Territories enforce classification decisions made by the Classification Board and Classification Review Board under their respective classification enforcement legislation. The relevant legislation in Victoria is the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) (Enforcement) Act 1995.

Any action taken by a Victorian public authority in enforcing offences under the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) (Enforcement) Act 1995 should be compatible with human rights, pursuant to the obligations on public authorities in section 38 of the Charter.

The Department received representations from the children's services sector for a substantial period of consultation following the release of draft regulations and the Regulatory Impact Statement (RIS).

It is important for individuals and organisations to have ample time to review materials, attend forums and respond to the RIS and draft regulations.

I have therefore decided that the period of the current regulations should be extended to May 2009 to allow for a more substantial consultation with the sector and I have advised peak bodies accordingly.

The outcome of the recent Federal election has brought new opportunities for greater coordination between the State and Commonwealth Governments in children's services. The proposed extension of the current regulations also recognises the need to work closely with the new Commonwealth Government to ensure the minimum standards outlined in Victoria’s regulations complement the proposed quality improvement measures of the Child Care Quality Assurance system.

These values are central to the work of the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development in building respect for others and social cohesion.

Schools undertake a number of programs and events designed to promote community harmony including Celebrate our Cultural Diversity Week, Courage to Care, Goodness and Kindness Project, the Citizen of Humanity Project, the Keynotes Project and utilisation of the Racism No Way website.

Further questions relating to programs offered in Government schools regarding living in a multilingual society should be directed to the Minister for Education.

Multicultural affairs: Victorian Multicultural Commission — funding

970. MR GUY — To ask the Minister for Planning (for the Minister for Multicultural Affairs): What are the details of the decrease in funding to the Victorian Multicultural Commission as part of Labor's Financial Statement savings for each of 2007-08, 2008-09 and 2009-10.

ANSWER:

I am informed as follows:

As committed in the Government's 2006 election policy statement Promoting Diversity: Strengthening Multiculturalism in Victoria and in Labor's Financial Statement, savings from the multicultural affairs portfolio were made from the 2007-08 financial year. This saving is being returned to the community in the form of additional grants, as was announced in the policy statement and subsequently in the 2007-08 State Budget.

Taking into account the other commitments pledged for the multicultural affairs portfolio, including in the 2007-08 State Budget, the overarching budget for the Victorian Multicultural Commission has actually increased from $9,324,000 in 2006-07 to:

- $10,508,000 in 2007-08;
- $13,686,000 in 2008-09; and
- $12,426,000 in 2009-10.

Roads and ports: Rowville road closure

1013. MR DALLA-RIVA — To ask the Minister for Industry and Trade (for the Minister for Roads and Ports): In relation to the road closure at the intersection of Napoleon Road and Kelletts Road in Rowville from 29 August 2007 to 17 October 2007:

- (1) Has constructing a temporary road or side track to the western side of the road reserve been considered as an alternative; if so, what would be the —
  - (a) cost;
  - (b) timeframe; and
  - (c) expected impact to —
    - (i) residential properties immediately adjoining the construction;
    - (ii) traffic flows throughout the area; and
    - (iii) local residents in the area.
- (2) What would be the expected impact of VicRoads' proposal to encourage through traffic to detour via routes more than three kilometres away from the intersection, to —
  - (a) residential properties immediately adjoining the construction;
  - (b) traffic flows throughout the area; and
  - (c) local residents in the area.
- (3) How does the Minister intend to —
  - (a) prevent large numbers of vehicles from using local side streets;
  - (b) preserve the safety of the children attending schools on local side streets; and
  - (c) preserve the safety and amenity of the residents who live on local side streets and adjoining streets.
- (4) For what reasons was the detour route chosen.

ANSWER:

As at the date the question was raised, the answer is:

- (1) Constructing a temporary road or side track to the western side of the road reserve had initially been considered as an alternative; however it was not feasible due to the constraints in width along this section of the road reservation.
- (2) The expected impact of VicRoads' proposal to encourage through traffic to detour via routes more than three kilometres away from the intersection, would:
  - (a) result in construction works for approximately 7 weeks, instead of 24 weeks adjacent to adjoining residents;
  - (b) result in traffic flows throughout the area using other main arterial roads, which have had alteration to timings of traffic signal to cater for the additional traffic flow along these routes to minimise any potential delays; and
  - (c) result in minimal impact for local residents in the area as access is still available for local residents along the local road network.
- (3) VicRoads intends to:
  - (a) prevent large numbers of vehicles from using local side streets by discouraging through traffic from entering the immediate area. Signage has been installed to deter this from occurring;
  - (b) continue to closely liaise with local primary schools to preserve the safety of the children attending schools on local side streets. Initial discussions have resulted on the installation of additional speed humps on Bellfield Drive in front of Lysterfield Primary School. The works have also been scheduled to coincide with the school holiday to minimise impacts on the schools; and
  - (c) continue to monitor the traffic in the local streets. The current arrangement included speed limits in the local detour roads being lowered to 40km/h in consultation with Knox City Council. Installation of temporary speed humps and speed trailers have also been installed to alert drivers to the speed they are travelling at. The local police have also increased their presence in the area to ensure drivers are complying with the changed conditions. These changes are aimed at ensuring the safety and amenity of the resident who live on local side streets and adjoining streets is preserved.
- (4) This particular detour route was chosen as it is the shortest and safest path to allow drivers to continue on the original route.

Health: equine flu vaccinations

1255. MR BARBER — To ask the Minister for Environment and Climate Change (for the Minister for Health): In relation to conditions applying to an Emergency Dealing Determination (EDD) for Genetically Modified (GM) vaccines for Equine Influenza (Proteqflu and Proteqflu TE):

- (1) On what date was the first vaccine covered by the EDD administered to a horse in Victoria.
- (2) What was the advice concerning actual or imminent threat to the environment or the health and safety of people provided to the Minister to justify the EDD.
- (3) To what degree did the advice provided to the Minister delineate the extent and degree of threat to the horse population and particularly, the numbers of horses that could die from the animal disease covered by the EDD.
- (4) On what basis did the Minister consider a threat to the horse population a serious threat to the environment.
- (5) What was the scientific risk assessment implemented for the released genetically modified organisms (GMOs) covered by the EDD and how did this assessment differ from a standard assessment process.
- (6) Did the Minister receive advice that additional resources were allocated in the emergency to enable an expedited assessment, not of a lesser scientific process, and what were those resources allocated prior to the Minister's decision to declare a corresponding EDD.
- (7) On what date was the Minister first consulted by the Commonwealth Minister about the EDD and did the Minister have input; if so, what was the Minister's input into the decision making process leading to the corresponding EDD.
- (8) Up to 20 November 2007, how many horses involved in the racing industry were vaccinated and how many horses not involved in the racing industry were vaccinated since the EDD.
- (9) What advice and scientific evidence was provided to the Minister from the Office of Gene Technology Regulator detailing that the proposed dealings could be managed safely.
- (10) Has the Regulator been informed of any new information or events which suggest that the GMO may be posing a risk to the health and safety of people or to the environment.

ANSWER:

I am informed that:

- Questions raised concerning the date when the first vaccine covered by the EDD administered to a horse in Victoria and the number of horses within and outside the racing industry vaccinated up to 20 November 2007, sit within the portfolio responsibility of the Minister for Agriculture.
- The Federal Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Health and Ageing notified respective State and Territory Ministers that the Australian Chief Veterinary Officer (AVCO) requested an issuing an EDD under the Gene Technology Act 2000 for the use of a GM vaccine to address an actual and imminent threat of equine influenza to the environment. Advice from the AVCO stated that the equine influenza was highly contagious and the outbreak of the disease posed a threat to the horse population in the whole of Australia, including donkeys, mules and asses. The seriousness of the disease was exemplified by mortalities of up to 20 per cent reported in infected horses overseas.

- A risk assessment was undertaken by the Office of the Gene Technology Regulator (OGTR) within their designated Risk Analysis Framework, utilising scientific evidence. In developing the risk assessment advice, the Regulator is required to apply the principles embodied in the Risk Analysis Framework.
- The Federal Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Health and Ageing first notified the Minister for Health about the request from the ACVO on 6 September 2007. The Office of the Gene Technology Regulator subsequently provided a draft risk assessment, which concluded that use of the GM equine vaccine would pose negligible risk to human health, safety and the environment. The Minister for Health sought advice through whole of government consultation processes.
- Receipt of any new information or notification of events which suggest that the GMO may be posing a risk to the health and safety of people or to the environment is a matter for the Office of the Gene Technology Regulator to manage.
