

[REDACTED]

From: Home Email [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, 10 July 2015 10:05 AM
To: EPC
Subject: Gas enquiry submission

Just thought I would send a note about unconventional gas. It is just that, unsafe and unpredictable. I see it as dangerous and capable of wrecking our farmlands and water supplies.

Finally, despite the rhetoric about supply shortages it is not needed.

With climate change a reality I would put my energies into renewables, they are far less pollutive and are capable of generating jobs much more suitable for a modern economy.

Greg Oates

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]