

To the Environment and Planning Committee,

Along with the majority of Victorians, I am strongly opposed to coal seam gas. It is dangerous and unnecessary as an energy source. Renewables will provide more future-proof jobs. Most importantly, we need to keep our water supply safe and maintain agricultural production. Please put a permanent ban in place!

Britta Klingspohn

