

To the Environment and Planning Committee,

We still don't completely understand the risks of fracking, and the effect it may have on the environment. It has the potential to pollute groundwater and the surrounding area, and leaves non-biodegradable chemicals sitting around in the earth long after the gas is gone.

Please keep our beautiful state free of fracking -- let's focus our energy on renewable, environmentally-friendly sources instead.

Jessie Arnold

[REDACTED]