So much neglect of Australian farm animals by Australian farmers. No shade! no shelter! Sometimes floods, sometimes unbearable heatwaves. Where is the care for these innocent sentient beings, harsh lives & brutal terrifying deaths! Millions of baby lambs dying of hyperthermia & starvation due to manipulated breeding & birthing in icy conditions in bare paddocks. Love of the dollar for farmers, not the well being of these animals!

Thanks to animal activists these atrocities are being exposed. For too long these abuses have gone unchallenged and unpunished. All animals deserve kindness, they are not inanimate objects like tables and chairs. They feel and they suffer!

It's time people were made aware of the cruelty they are complicit in. Time to take the blinkers off and face the truth.
