Our future is in jeopardy!
The abhorrent practices put in place by farmers trying to get as much bang for the buck in an outdated and sadistic industry is putting the lives of our children at serious risk and yet our government is shovelling money into a dying industry in order to support 'good ol aussie farmers' but the reality is that if we reskilled our farming workforce we'd be the produce capital of the world and we'd bring even more love, life, and prosperity to our families, communities, and the loving gentle beings that are needlessly slaughtered in their millions.
