

[REDACTED]

---

[REDACTED]

Farming and hard work is what drives this great nation forward. Generations and generations of hardworking Australians give their blood, sweat and tears towards putting food on our tables. So why must they face cruel and violent protests when all they are doing is their job? No one storms a school and steals a student just to advocate against teachers. So why must farmers face this?

The government should implement limitations to prevent trespassing and unlawful protest against our farmers.

Brad Edwards,

[REDACTED]