Dear Committee Members,

. Animal agriculture has been played by mistreatment and abuse.

. Many short cuts are taken.

. From '4 Corners' to The Age through to social media - all loaded with revelations of abject cruelty and neglected care.

. The animal activist trespassers are seeking fundamentally to expose cruelty.

. So, why aren't their random and regular inspections of animal safety - not politicized RSPCA, but Government administered inspectors that assess and review the provision of genuine safety and being of farmed animals.

. If this doesn't occur, more and more trespassing will continue to happen.

. The Government will produce a growth of high publicity martyrs as greater awareness in our community expands.

Yours sincerely,

Genni & Richard Marks
