It's really important we look into why these people are activist. How can we solve a problem here!

There are animals living in inhumane conditions. And enough is enough- we are aware in this day and age that animals (just like our pet dogs and cats at home) they have FEELINGS - and to treat them as property is no longer okay. They need good lives grass fields 10h + outside a day. End live exports. End taking babies off their mothers. End spreading lies that the mother cow "enjoys us taking her baby off her cause she wantwants humans to drink her milk instead" it's bullshit. And we as humans should be doing better.
