

[REDACTED]

Inquiry Name: Inquiry into the Impact of Animal Rights Activism on Victorian Agriculture

Trespassing is already a crime. Whistleblowers need to be protected. Emily Baxter

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

SUBMISSION CONTENT:

--

I am a meat eater and I believe people like myself have a right to see where their food comes from. Trespassing is already a crime. Whistle blowers need to be protected.It's obvious these farmers don't want the general public to see what happens behind closed doors. If these farms were more transparent, animal activists would not be forced to trespass to obtain footage that the people of Australia have a right to see.

--

File1:

File2:

File3: