

Inquiry Name: Inquiry into Expanding Melbourne's Free Tram Zone

The free tram zone should be extended to include the University of Melbourne and the nearby hospitals. The people travelling to these destinations include some of those least able to pay (such as students). Ending the Elizabeth Street free tram zone at Victoria Market rather than continuing for one or two stops further to include the University and hospitals, both major journey end points, is extremely arbitrary, especially considering that the free tram zone includes the docklands where far fewer people need to travel.
