Item 1; Public transport should be free for all Ex Defence force/returned servicemen warlike and peacekeeping operations and holders of Department Of Veterans Affairs similar to what is provided in New South Wales in which free travel is offered. Why are returned servicemen and women provided the same level of benefits as NSW which has had their system in place for many years.

Item 2; When cruise ships arrive in Melbourne they should be allowed to travel for free on public transport on production of their cruise ship card.
