

Hi there,

It's great that we have a free tram zone within the city.

Around this, one question might be, 'Why was the decision originally made to limit the zone to just the city square?'

There is a spine that runs through the city from Melbourne Uni/hospitals/Lygon St etc. to Melbourne Uni's Southbank campus, the Shrine, Botanic Gardens, parks, Myer Music Bowl, Toorak Road, Albert Park etc. Free travel would be great for university students as they move from one campus to another as well making it simpler for tourists by presenting to them a cohesive view of our city.

A better question to ask is 'Why was this was not done in the first place?'

All the best,

Ashley Cross

[Redacted signature block]