Inquiry into Expanding Melbourne's Free Tram Zone

By making a submission you are providing important input into the work of the Parliament of Victoria. This form is designed to assist you in making an electronic submission to a Parliamentary Committee. Please refer to advice on Making a written submission for further information about the submission process.

PRIVILEGE

Submissions that are accepted by a committee are protected by parliamentary privilege. This means that no legal action can be taken against you in relation to the evidence in your submission. If you choose to publish your submission in another form, for example on your website, that publication will not be protected by parliamentary privilege.

SUBMISSIONS

In general, all submissions accepted by a committee are public documents. This means that the submission may be published on the committee's website and quoted in the committee's report to Parliament.

CONFIDENTIALITY

If you do not want your submission to be published, you may request that the committee treat it as confidential. Confidential submissions can not be completed online using this form. Requests must be made by contacting the Committee Secretary - see the Contacts menu item on the left. PLEASE DO NOT USE THIS FORM.

If you are experiencing trouble with the eSubmissions form, you can email your submission to tramzoneinquiry@parliament.vic.gov.au
