Dear Inquiry,

I submit my concerns regarding the RSPCA and it's shift away from its traditional role caring for animals and instead devoting some focus to 'animal activism'.

The RSPCA wastes donations and government funding attacking and agitating against legal and lawful activities such as horse racing, greyhound racing and hunting. This move to activism places it alongside known serial offenders such as Animals Liberation, Animals Australia and militant activist groups along the likes of 'Sea Shepard'.

The fact that they take this direction should be cause enough to immediately cease any form of Government funding and termination of the CEO.

I also note their new multi million dollar headquarters could have directed a lot of funding with a more modest building back into it's core activities and care for animals. Please reclaim the RSPCA for the State of Victoria.

Thankyou,

Danny Ryan
