

From: Robert Muston [REDACTED]

Subject: Pollution

Hi Michael,

Re clean air in Victoria.

The big one for me is Southern Cross station. As an asthmatic it is impossible for me to travel through this station due to the build-up of diesel fumes from the rural V-Line trains sitting there idling. As an engineer I can see many ways to fix this. At present it is like a third world station, impossible to breathe without having an asthma attack.

Rob Muston