

My name is Miles Elliott [REDACTED]

I would like this email to remain confidential.

I am writing to you to implore you to take action against the degredation of our already highly vulnerable ecosystem and all its inhabitants.

Stop logging our over logged state

Protect threated species

Clean our environment

I am worried about the future generations and its your job to take meaningful action