Dear Government Leaders,

Please lend your hearts and minds to consider alternatives to killing native animals. After the loss of species and habitat following the bushfires is it not even more imperative fair and just to give these animals a fair go?

Personally it upsets me greatly to hear of the cruel and inhumane ways these animals are treated and how little regard their lives are given.

I hope and pray you take on board and apply the recommendations offered by respected animal organisations such as Animals Australia and the Animal Justice Party.

Sincerely,

Nikki Gilbert
