Environmental groups at next hearing on recycling and waste management

On Tuesday 8 October 2019, the parliamentary inquiry into recycling and waste management will continue its public hearings in Melbourne.

Various environmental groups and the Australian Retailers Association will be presenting to the Legislative Council's Environment and Planning Committee.

The public hearing will be held at 55 St Andrews Place, East Melbourne from 10:15 am to 3:15 pm and will be broadcast live on the Victorian Parliament's website enabling people across the state to view the discussions.

The schedule for the hearing is available from the Committee's website.

Under the terms of reference for the inquiry, the Committee is examining the Victorian government's waste management approach, the response to China's waste ban and solutions to the recycling and waste crisis, including reduction strategies.

It has received more than 700 submissions and has held public hearings in Melbourne, Morwell, Echuca and Dunkeld.

Transcripts from earlier hearings and submissions are available from the Committee's website.
