Spent 6 weeks on remand, 4 in solitary, after emailing my X, as per allowed by family law court orders... It was at least the 3rd time my 3 children have had their father suddenly and inexplicably erased from their lives, and no reasonable communications provided, despite family law court orders... Within Days of being bailed, the kids started calling then DHHS stepped in and cut off communication again... All for no good reason... Never been violent / threatened to be violent... I am very concerned about what Vic Pol has been up to - as my X is a high level public servant ... and there has been trafficking in malicious gossip. The court case is crazy, but subpoena's show - Vic Pol has conspired to target my children's relationship with me... Oh, sorry, I am a male, so I guess that excludes me from consideration ? So I went to jail, my kids were harmed because no one explained anything to them...seems clear it is because I am the targeted parent, to be erased from the children's lives - Next....! Still haven't been convicted btw...
