Are there any additional themes we should consider?

Pressure fed for a job guarantee.

Whether that's by the state doing it and the consequences being obvious or argument.

YOUR SUBMISSION

Submission:

The Fed needs to implement a Job Guarantee. Now is the ideal time to do this as we need to boost the economy anyway.

The broader aspect takes in MMT and the dictum/mantra/slogan/whatever you want to call it of: "The Fed can spend up to the point of full employment."

It's easy to remember and it has the benefit of being true and having historical precedence under FDR to cure the great depression.

Do you have any additional comments or suggestions?:

Oh go and read up on MMT. I'm not an expert, I just know it makes more sense than the neocon bullshit everyone bought into after Thatcher and Reagan.

You know - the system you've all, (Labor and Liberal), been using, that doesn't work?
