

Why not downsize those singles in 2 or 3 bedroom housing when their children grow up and leave, so as a new families may have housing. Single people, and there's lots, are taking up the space of a whole family. Something needs to be put in place so people have to downsize to one bedroom to decrease the huge wastage and waiting lists. This will sure up some room to house families and the vulnerable.

Thank you
Kerry Wennig
