YOUR SUBMISSION

Submission:

I believe that the criminalisation of an ancient plant with a history of human use going back millenia is an outrage. It is a human right to alter your state of consciousness. The cognitive dissonance that we have as a society around the use of alcohol in contrast to other drugs is delusional.

Speaking for myself personally, access to cannabis reduces my consumption of alcohol. I believe it to be a much healthier and safer option.

From my experience, groups of people using cannabis together instead of alcohol are far more peaceful and safe. People chill out and laugh and share experiences.
