YOUR SUBMISSION

Submission:

My veteran husband's PTSD, headaches, stomach, and body pain, all from Naval Service, have been thoroughly investigated and acknowledged by doctors and DVA. Unfortunately, there is no cure for PTSD, and his headaches have no understood cause or cure. The only thing that has relieved any of his symptoms is illegal in Victoria, where we now reside.

It is painful to watch my husband suffer, when medical doctors cannot help and the law currently prevents relief.

I'd request to legalise cannabis, taxing it as necessary to aid in overseeing its responsible use.
