YOUR SUBMISSION

Submission:

Legalising cannabis would bring in money to help the state recover after the effects of COVID19.

Having tried and experienced cannabis culture in America, MedMen stores being the gold standard of the experience, I don't see why this drug is criminalised when the effects it has on an individual are nowhere near as detrimental as alcohol or tobacco.

With cannabis legalisation and regulation, CBD without the psychoactive properties of THC would be available to use for the older generation as therapeutic and relaxing pain relief. And THC infused edibles would become available reducing the amount of people smoking dirty unregulated cannabis, which would hopefully have the added bonus of reducing the risk of lung cancer, a burden on the health care system we currently have as a result of legal tobacco.

Nobody has king hit anybody after consuming cannabis. Thank you for reading.
