Are there any additional themes we should consider?

Given cannabis is now legal in many places across the world (and given the war on drugs is firmly rooted in purely racist beginnings) it must be time for legalisation here (and think of all the sweet revenue the Government could make off this) and if cigarettes (which pretty much guarantee death) are legal why not weed?

Select all that apply. Do you think there should be restrictions on the use of cannabis? :

Personal use of cannabis should be legal. ,Sale of cannabis should be legal and regulated. ,Cultivation of cannabis for personal use should be legal.

YOUR SUBMISSION

Submission:

Given the state of cannabis legalisation across the world (look particularly to the US) it seems high time that Australia move to legalise it. Cigarettes and alcohol have always been way more dangerous and have been legal forever. The properties of cannabis lend itself to both the medicinal market and the recreational market. The Government could regulate and produce the product and reap much in terms of revenue. There would be much less strain on the courts/legal system too if there were no longer people being prosecuted for personal use.
