YOUR SUBMISSION

Submission:

I think legalising cannabis usage will do wonders to improve the safety of existing users. Personally, I have decided to abstain from consuming alcohol due to the health risks and see cannabis as a great alternative without any of the downsides of alcohol use. If I was able to access a safe, regulated supply, I would be able to use the drug recreationally in a way that is safer than buying it on the street. Regulation could and should also protect children and young people from accessing it until a suitable age, and would free up police resources to deal with issues that are of much more importance when considering public safety.
